

This new proposal will limit religious broadcasting accross America. I am a citizen who benefits greatly from these broadcasts. They provide encouragement and uplifting positive messages that no other broadcast inspires. This is a free country, as a result, religious freedom should not be hindered by the FCC.